

EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY (EEO) POLICY STATEMENT

Sterling Computers Corporation (“Sterling”) is an equal opportunity employer and is a company of values; from the beginning, we’ve prided ourselves on leading with integrity and on holding ourselves to the highest ethical standard. And that commitment isn’t going away anytime soon. Neither is our insistence on fostering a workplace environment that is inclusive, safe, and equitable for all. The Sterling culture, first and foremost, is one predicated on respect. As a company, therefore, we will never tolerate harassment, discrimination, or unlawful conduct of any kind. This EEO Policy Statement affirms Sterling’s commitment to the principles of equal employment opportunity. As employees of Sterling, I trust you will all conduct yourselves in a manner which furthers those principles and will continue to inspire as exemplary models of The Sterling Way.

EEO POLICY

Sterling is committed to ensuring all qualified employees and applicants for employment receive equal employment opportunity in every aspect of the employment process in accordance with applicable law.

At Sterling, we will make employment decisions in a manner which will further the principles of equal employment opportunity and will ensure promotion decisions are in accord with the principles of equal employment opportunity by imposing only valid requirements for promotional opportunities. We will ensure employment practices are free of discrimination and harassment, and we will provide reasonable accommodation to employees and applicants as required by applicable law.

This commitment applies to all terms and conditions and privileges of employment, including recruiting, hiring, upgrading, promotion, demotion, transfers, promotions, layoffs and terminations, leaves rates of pay and other forms of compensation, and selection and financial support for trainings, and company sponsored activities; and this commitment applies to all qualified persons in all job titles and at all levels of employment, regardless of age, race, color, creed, religion, disability, medical condition, economic status or status with regard to public assistance, citizenship status, national or social or ethnic origin, past or present membership in the uniformed services, protected veteran status, sex, pregnancy, marital or civil union or domestic partnership status, family or parental status, sexual orientation, gender expression or identity, family medical history or genetic information, HIV status, political belief, or any other status or characteristic protected by applicable law.

EEO PROGRAM

Sterling is committed to ensuring its EEO policy is implemented and complied with, both in letter and spirit, which we do through our EEO program.

Our EEO program includes developing our policy statements, training and awareness programs, internal and external communication techniques, and procedures for identifying and addressing problems areas. It also includes developing policies and procedures for monitoring and preparing reports on the overall effectiveness of our EEO program.

Our EEO program does NOT involve any illegal discrimination or preferences, such as any illegal DEI practices or illegal affirmative action programs.

It continues to be important for all of us at Sterling to support our EEO program and to work together to promote and further the principles of equal employment opportunity. Overall responsibility of Sterling’s EEO program is assigned to the EEO Officer.

EEO OFFICER

Sterling designates as EEO Officer:

Rebecca Eberly
Sr. Director of Human Resources

POLICY VIOLATIONS

At Sterling, each of us are expected to comply with Sterling's EEO Policy and related applicable law. Any form of activity inconsistent with this policy is a violation of Sterling's values and company policy. Sterling will take action to investigate and address any allegation of discrimination or harassment confidentially and promptly.

Any employee or applicant for employment who believes they have been treated in a way that is inconsistent with Sterling's EEO policy should contact the EEO Officer or other management representative, including myself, through one of the following communication channels:

- EEO Officer, Rebecca Eberly, at rebecca.eberly@sterling.com
- Myself, Executive Chairman, Jean Moore, at jean.moore@sterling.com
- Sterling's internal ethics email maintained by the Ethics Hotline Team and which allows reporting confidentially (not anonymously), at ethics@sterling.com

NO RETALIATION

Sterling prohibits any form of retaliation against a person who honestly and in good faith reports, or participates in any investigation regarding, any known or suspected violation of Sterling's EEO Policy.

Approval and Signature

I sign this EEO Policy Statement to affirm Sterling's commitment to, and my personal and professional support of, the principles of equal employment opportunity.

Jean M. Moore
Executive Chairman

April 14, 2025